PROGRAM BACKGROUND

What is the Emergency Rental Assistance (ERA) program?

The Emergency Rental Assistance program makes funds available to assist eligible renter households that are unable to pay past due and/or future rent and utilities due to the COVID-19 pandemic, subject to income qualifications. These funds will be paid directly to landlords and utility providers on behalf of renters.

Nebraskans residing in Lancaster County, Douglas County, City of Lincoln, and City of Omaha, will not be eligible to apply for the Nebraska Emergency Rental Assistance Program. Please contact the following for more information on locally administered programs:

- Lancaster County and City of Lincoln: <http://www.lincoln.ne.gov/rent> or call +1 (402) 413-2085
- City of Omaha: <http://macchconnect.org/> (Due to high call volume, please only use this phone number if you don't have internet access - 402-957-1747)
- Douglas County (opens April 16): <https://copeinfo.org/rent-assist/> or call +1 (402) 616-2330

Additionally, the following Indian Tribal Housing authorities are administering their own programs. Any members of these tribes should reach out to:

- Omaha Tribal Housing Authority: <https://www.othauthority.com/> or call +1 (402) 837-5728
- Northern Ponca Tribal Housing Authority: <https://poncahousing.org/> or call +1 (402) 379-8224 (Norfolk) or +1 (402) 505-3055 (Omaha)

PROGRAM TIMELINE

What are the key program dates?

The program opened and started taking applications on February 22, 2021. Applicants are encouraged to apply by September 30, 2021 to ensure funds are available. Nebraska will continue to operate the ERA Program until funding is no longer available from the U.S. Treasury, or until September 30, 2022.

How will I know if there are any updates to the program?

Any changes to the program will be posted on <https://coronavirus.nebraska.gov>. Please check this website periodically to see if any updates have been posted.

APPLICANT ELIGIBILITY

Who is eligible?

You are eligible if you answer YES to ALL of the following:

- You are a Nebraska resident outside of Douglas and Lancaster Counties
- You are a renter with a current residential lease or rental agreement

- You are a U.S. citizen or legal resident alien
- Your landlord is not an immediate family member
- You are unable to pay all or part of your monthly rent due to a COVID-19 financial hardship (e.g., qualify for unemployment, have experienced a reduction in household income, or incurred significant costs)
- You can show a risk of experiencing homelessness or housing instability (e.g. past due notice, proof of non-payment of rent, or eviction notice)
- Your household currently meets the income guidelines. See Appendix A - Area Median Income (AMI) by County – 80% Income Eligibility Limit

Rental assistance provided to an eligible household cannot be duplicative of any other federally funded rental assistance provided to such household.

Will there be any preferences provided for applicants?

Yes. In addition to meeting the aforementioned program eligibility requirements, funding will be allocated based on the following criteria:

- Households with total annual incomes at or below 50% of area median as illustrated in the AMI table (See Appendix A)
- Households with individuals currently unemployed for 90 days or more
- Households with a valid eviction notice that puts them at risk of homelessness

What if I already receive rental assistance through another program?

Emergency rental assistance may only be used to pay for the renter-paid portion of rent and utility costs that are not paid for by other rental assistance programs.

Do I have to be a Nebraska resident to apply for assistance?

Yes. Applicants must be a current resident of Nebraska.

Emergency Rental Assistance will be administered locally for residents of:

- Lancaster County and City of Lincoln: <http://www.lincoln.ne.gov/rent> or call +1 (402) 413-2085
- City of Omaha: <http://macchconnect.org/> (Due to high call volume, please only use this phone number if you don't have internet access - 402-957-1747)
- Douglas County (opens April 16): <https://copeinfo.org/rent-assist/> or call +1 (402) 616-2330

Additionally, the following Indian Tribal Housing authorities are administering their own programs.

Any members of these tribes should reach out to:

- Omaha Tribal Housing Authority: <https://www.othauthority.com/> or call +1 (402) 837-5728
- Northern Ponca Tribal Housing Authority: <https://poncahousing.org/> or call +1 (402) 379-8224 (Norfolk) or +1 (402) 505-3055 (Omaha)

Nebraskans residing in these jurisdictions will not be eligible to apply for the Nebraska Emergency Rental Assistance Program.

Do I have to be a U.S. citizen or a legal resident alien to apply for assistance?

Yes. Tenant applicants must be a U.S. citizen or a legal resident alien to apply for assistance and are required to upload supporting documentation as part of their application.

How is my household income determined?

Household income is determined as one of the following:

- Total household income for calendar year 2020 using the Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) as noted on your Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Form 1040 series for individual Federal annual income tax purposes; or
- Total household monthly income at the time of application for at least the two months prior to application submission. For household incomes determined using the monthly income option to substantiate income eligibility, your income eligibility must be redetermined every 3 months for any award extensions the applicant applies.

Can I apply for assistance if I live with roommates?

Your name must be on the lease if you are applying for assistance for the portion of rent for which you are responsible. A roommate named on the lease may also apply for assistance for the portion of rent for which the roommate is responsible. All other eligibility criteria must also be met for each applicant.

I have received unemployment benefits, am I eligible for assistance?

Yes, if you are an eligible applicant as defined by the criteria set forth above.

I have a pending eviction notice; can this program help me with assistance?

This program may be able to assist you, but you must be an eligible applicant as defined by the criteria set forth above. Assistance is available for rent due from April 1, 2020 through November 30, 2021. If you have received an eviction notice, please contact Legal Aid of Nebraska at +1 (888) 991-9921 or <https://www.legalaidofnebraska.org>.

What resources are available to help me with the application process?

The following applicant resources are available to you on <https://coronavirus.nebraska.gov> under Emergency Rental Assistance:

- An Application User Guide provides instructions for navigating the online application portal, lists the questions to be found on the online application form and outlines the documents and information you need to complete the application process. (PLEASE NOTE THAT PAPER BASED APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED)
- A toll-free contact center at +1 (833) 500-8810 for you to call with questions. Contact Center agents will be available between 08:00 am and 05:00 pm Central Time, Monday through Friday.

If I previously received funding under Nebraska's Coronavirus Relief Fund programs, will I be eligible to receive funding under the ERA program?

Yes. Receipt of Coronavirus Relief Funds under prior programs is not considered in determining eligibility for the ERA program.

I have received funds from the Small Business Administration under the Paycheck Protection Program or the Emergency Injury Disaster Loan program. Can I still be eligible for this program?

Yes. Receipt of funds from the Paycheck Protection Program or the Emergency Injury Disaster Loan program is not considered in determining eligibility for the ERA program.

What if I am not eligible to receive assistance but I still need help?

There may be other programs that can help you. Please visit these websites:

- The Nebraska Investment Finance Authority's COVID-19 Resources site: <https://www.nifa.org/emergency-response-info>
- Nebraska Children and Families Foundation's COVID-19 Information and Resources page: <https://www.nebraskachildren.org/covid-19-information-and-resources.html>

USE OF FUNDS

What are eligible uses of ERA funds other than to pay for rent?

ERA funds may also be used for “utilities and home energy costs” and for Internet service provided to the rental unit. In addition, ERA funds may be used for certain “other expenses” defined below.

Note: Utilities will be treated as rent for any utilities paid as part of your rental payment to your landlord (those utilities may include electricity, gas, water and sewer, trash removal and energy costs, such as fuel oil). Applicants may also apply for internet service up to $100 per month.

Can an applicant request assistance for utility or energy costs without also applying for rent?

Yes, an applicant may apply for utilities and home energy costs without applying for rent.

What are some examples of “other expenses”?

“Other expenses” related to housing include relocation expenses (including prospective relocation expenses), such as:

- Rental security deposits (only if the lease is 4 months or more in length, and may only be approved up to the amount of one month's rent)
- Rental application or screening fees
- Renters insurance (if required by lease)
- Utility disconnection and reconnection fees
- Utility deposits

And, under certain circumstances, the cost of temporary housing (e.g., a hotel or motel stay) may also be covered as an “other expense”

Can assistance be provided to temporarily displaced households living in hotels or motels?

Yes, under certain circumstances, provided that:

- The household has been temporarily or permanently displaced from its primary residence or does not have a permanent residence elsewhere;
- The total months of assistance provided to the household do not exceed the applicable time limit which is a total of 15 months with a limit of $10,000; and
- Documentation of the hotel or motel stay is provided. No expenses incidental to the charge for the room should be included (e.g. meals/room service, laundry, phone, pay-to-view tv/movies, etc.)

Are there any utility expenses that are not eligible?

Yes. Telecommunication services (telephone and cable) delivered to the rental dwelling are not eligible utilities.

How many months may I apply for rental assistance?

You may apply for up to 12 months of back rent (no earlier than April 1, 2020) and up to three months of future rent from the date of application submission. Once your initial application is approved, you may apply for extensions in the future but cannot receive more than a total of 15 months of assistance.

How much rental assistance will I be eligible to receive?

You may be approved for rental and utility assistance up to and no more than $20,000 during the life of the program.

How much rental and/or utility assistance should I request?

You can only apply for the amount of back rent or utilities that are owed and up to three months of future rent. You cannot apply for more than 15 total months of assistance or more than $20,000 total assistance. Applicants may apply for internet service and will be awarded up to $100 per month.

Can late fees be included in the requested assistance?

Yes, however late fees will be limited to no more than 10% of approved rent paid, so long as the total assistance per household does not exceed the maximum assistance available.

If I receive rental assistance through this program, can I still be evicted?

Before your landlord can receive a rental payment, your landlord must certify that they will not evict your household based on non-payment for any of the months that assistance is paid on your behalf from the program. However, you should still attend any scheduled court hearing and bring proof that assistance was awarded, You may also contact Legal Aid of Nebraska for assistance at <https://www.legalaidofnebraska.org/> or +1 (888) 991-9921.

If I receive funding now through this program, can I be eligible again if housing challenges persist?

You may apply multiple times as long as you have not exceeded the limits of 15 months or $20,000.

APPLICATION PROCESSHow can I complete the application form?

Applicants may complete the application form by first visiting: <https://coronavirus.nebraska.gov> and selecting the webpage for the Emergency Rental Assistance Program.

Paper-based applications will not be accepted to facilitate the need for expedited processing to meet the high level of rental assistance need in the community.

What if I don't have access to complete the application online?

There are several places that have available computer access, including your local public library, a local church, or a human service agency. If you have a case worker, they may be able to help as well.

What if I can't complete the application myself?

Third parties are allowed to complete an application on your behalf. Third parties are case workers, family members, or others available to help you. However, the third party will then be the email contact and you must allow the third party to agree to the application terms on your behalf.

Will the application process be available in Spanish?

Yes.

What information do I need to provide to complete the application process?

Please refer to the Application User Guide on <https://coronavirus.nebraska.gov> under Emergency Rental Assistance for the list of documents and information you may need to complete the online application form. Please review the Application User Guide in its entirety before you begin the application process.

What supporting documentation will I need to complete the application process?

Please refer to the Application User Guide on <https://coronavirus.nebraska.gov> under Emergency Rental Assistance that outlines the documents to be used or uploaded as part of the application process. Documents should be uploaded in PDF format to allow ease of review.

Please provide the following:

- Proof of being financially impacted by the COVID-19 (e.g., employment verification of loss of employment, unemployment, layoff letter, etc.)
- Current lease or rental agreement
- Driver's license or other Government issued photo ID for head of household
- Proof of current income of all household members who file income taxes (e.g., IRS Form 1040 for the year 2020, recent pay stubs showing total household monthly income at the time of application for at least the two months prior to application submission, unemployment claim, contribution statement, etc.)
- If applicable, supporting information for additional months of assistance (e.g., rent statement, rent notices showing balance of rent owed, etc.)

Why do I need to agree to the Terms and Conditions before being notified whether my application has been approved?

Acknowledging that you have read, understand, and agree to the grant requirements and conditions is a step in the approval process. This includes but not limited to:

- Agreeing to comply with the Grant Agreement Requirements and Conditions including but not limited to complying with all applicable federal laws, regulations, executive orders, policies, procedures, and directives
- Agreeing to public reporting of your name and select award information as part of the State's public transparency and accounting
- Confirmation that application contains complete and accurate information
- Landlord acceptance of terms, including acceptance of payment for back rent as payment in full, withdrawal of any previously provided seven-day notice and agreement not to evict renter based on back rents or during months of future rent paid through the program.

APPLICATION UPDATES

How will I know my application has been received and can I check the status?

Please refer to the Application User Guide on <https://coronavirus.nebraska.gov> under Emergency Rental Assistance for instructions on how to check your application status online. You will receive email notifications at various stages, including: (1) account creation; (2) application submission; (3) application decision; and, (4) fund disbursement.

Will I be able to make changes to my application after I have submitted?

No. Once an application has been submitted an applicant will not be able to make any edits. Please review the user guide in its entirety before you begin your online application and ensure you have the required documentation for submission. The Application User Guide may be found at: <https://coronavirus.nebraska.gov> under Emergency Rental Assistance.

How will I be notified if I am awarded funding?

Award decisions will be announced via email. An award letter will not be sent, so the email will serve in its place. Please ensure the email address you provide in your application is entered correctly.

If my application is not approved, will I be able to know the reason?

Yes, the notification email on application decisions will tell you the reason(s) your application was not approved.

Will I be able to appeal a decision?

Yes, instructions may be found in the Application User Guide on <https://coronavirus.nebraska.gov> under Emergency Rental Assistance.

COVID IMPACT

Do I have to prove a loss of my income from COVID-19?

Yes, you need to provide a description of how you were directly or indirectly impacted by COVID including showing that you lost income due to COVID-19.

What is required for proof of a COVID-19 related loss of income?

The application requires a self-certification of income, which will be reviewed along with supporting documentation. You will need to provide 2019 Pay Stubs or 2019 W2 along with 2020 Pay Stubs or 2020 W2 so they can be compared or other proof of previous income, for instance a verified unemployment application.

TAX IMPLICATIONS

I am a renter who received Emergency Rental Assistance. Are these payments includable in my gross income?

No. Emergency Rental Assistance payments made to eligible households are not considered income to members of the household.

I am a landlord and received Emergency Rental Assistance funds on my tenant's behalf. Is this payment includable in my gross income?

Yes. Emergency Rental Assistance is intended to help eligible households that require financial assistance to pay for rent, utilities, home energy expenses, and other related expenses, and the payments are excluded from income only for those households. Rental payments you receive, whether from your tenant or from the State of Nebraska, are includable in your gross income.

I run a utility company that has a customer who qualifies for Emergency Rental Assistance. The State of Nebraska sent my company a utility payment on my customer's behalf. Is this payment includable in my company's gross income?

Yes. Emergency Rental Assistance is intended to help eligible households that require financial assistance to pay for rent, utilities, home energy expenses, and other related expenses, and the payments are excluded from income only for those households. Utility payments your company receives, whether from a customer or from the State of Nebraska, are includable in your company's gross income.

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

I do not have reliable internet; may I submit via paper or phone?

You can access the web portal to submit an application via your mobile device. No paper applications will be accepted.

I do not have access to the internet so how do I apply for the Nebraska Emergency Rental Assistance?

There are several places that have available computer access, including your local public library, a local church, or a human service agency. If you have a case worker, they may be able to help as well.

Can I fill out the application and submit the documents using my mobile device?

Yes, the website is mobile friendly. The application and supporting documents can be submitted electronically using your phone or other mobile device.

What kind of assistance will be available to me during and after the application process? I expect there will be questions that cannot be answered in this FAQ.

Applicants may call +1 (833) 500-8810 from 08:00am - 05:00pm Central Time, Monday through Friday. Persons taking questions will answer your questions during the call, or in some cases may need to call you back. Please be prepared to leave your name and contact information.

Will there be call center support in Spanish?

Yes, there will be call center support in Spanish.

What kind of technical assistance is available to help complete the application process?

The Application User Guide provides an overview of how to navigate the online application portal.

POST-AWARD / FUND DISBURSEMENT

To whom does the rent or utility assistance payment go?

The rental assistance payment will be mailed directly to the landlord or utility provider. If a landlord does not wish to participate, funds may be paid directly to the eligible household, if approved.

What should I do if I or my landlord or utility provider have not received a check but have been notified that I was awarded funding?

Payments to awarded applications will be processed on a weekly basis and will continue through the end of the program. Applicants are encouraged to log-in and check the status of their application on the online portal found on <https://coronavirus.nebraska.gov> under Emergency Rental Assistance.

How will I know when my landlord or utility provider has been paid?

Email notifications are sent at each phase of the application process to include when a payment has been processed for an approved award. Applicants are encouraged to log-in and check the status of their application on the online portal found on <https://coronavirus.nebraska.gov> under Emergency Rental Assistance.

What are the compliance requirements?

Landlords and renters agree that they will comply with all applicable program requirements and that they will be subject to oversight monitoring and/or audit from the State of Nebraska and/or the Treasury Office of Inspector General and their designees. Confirmed instances of non-compliance may result in recoupment of funds and/or suspension from participating in current and future assistance programs.

Will I be required to pay the money back in the future?

No, as long as the applicant complies with the terms and conditions of the program.

Am I guaranteed to get an award if I am eligible?

No, awards are made based on fund availability in addition to eligibility.

PUBLIC NOTICEWhat information about me will be made publicly available?

Although the State of Nebraska will issue public reports on the use of funds, no personally identifiable information on the renters or landlords participating in this program will be published.
